Frank Chapp vs. Earnest Carlson.
In Chancery, March Term, 1913.
Whereas, Frank Chapp, of North Grafton in the county of Worcester and state of Massachusetts, has this day filed in the office of the clerk of the court of chancery, within and for the county of Washington and state of Verment, his bill in chancery for the foreclosure of a mortgage against Earnest Carlson, formerly of the city of Barre, in said county of Washington, but now of parts unknown and beyond the state of Verment, setting forth in substance that the said Earnest Carlson, then of the city of Barre aforesaid. setting forth in substance that the said Earnest Carlson, then of the city of Barre aforesaid, on the 6th day of December, 1911, executed to the said Frank Clapp a mortgage deed of certain land situated in the city of Barre aforesaid and described as follows, viz.:

Being the easterly half of lot 8 of the plan of lots of a portion of the James M. Smith farm, so called, said half lot is 42½ feet wide on George street, 75 feet wide on Center street, and is known as No. one (1) George street in the city of Barre. Being the same land and premises that Joseph Sassi and Mary Sassi conveyed to the said Earnest Carlson by their deed of warranty dated September 25, 1911, and recorded in book 19, page 2331, of the land records of the city of Barre. Said mortgage was conditioned for the payment of one certain promissory note for the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, payable to the said Frank Clapp, with interest annually, as follows: Two hundred dollars on or before six months from date, and one hundred and fifty dollars with months thereafter until said note should be fully paid.

And further setting forth that on the 9th months thereafter until said note should be fully paid.

And further setting forth that on the 9th day of October, 1911, the said Earnest Carlson, by his deed of that date, executed a mortgage deed duly acknowledged and recorded of certain land and premises in the city of Barre aforesaid, therein described as follows:

The above described land and premises, described as the same is above described. Said mortgage being conditioned for the payment of one certain promissory note dated October 9, 1911, for the sum of four hundred dollars, payable to the Barre Savings Bank & Trust Company, on demand, with interest semi-annually and signed by the said Earnest Carlson.
